The featured bands are the Moanalua High School Symphonic Wind Ensemble and the Moanalua Middle School Symphonic Band. At the end of the concert, our two bands will combine on stage to perform a song together.

The purpose of this performance is to share our music during the holiday season, visit the MoHS campus, meet and greet the high school band students over a bento dinner provided by the MoHS Music Boosters, and meet the awesome high school band directors.

This concert is open and free to the public. Doors will open to the audience at 6:10 pm.

We hope you are able to attend the Moanalua Joint Concert and enjoy the musical sounds of our bands during the holiday season. Mahalo nui!
